

In my car I rarely had the radio on due to bad reception or boring programing. Now I can listin to the music I want, tune into the truckers channel and check on the weather and traffic conditions. I am paying for this service and can not understand why the NAB has a right to change that.I want my XM programming!